

A World in Chaos . . . A Mind at Ease

Skills for the Conscious Journeyer

Led by Karen Wright

A World in Chaos . . . A Mind at Ease

The daily news is bleak - job losses, financial ruin, a recession not receding. Life is hard for many. And even harder for those whose minds hold them hostage.

Worry, confusion, fear.

We're tired, sick, and losing hope that life will ever again be good.

Waiting for the world to change in order to feel whole again keeps us stuck.

...and victimized,

...and helpless.

We've been terrorized by the news so long that we've forgotten our own strength and capacity to control, not just cope.

You don't have to put up with this manipulation any more.

As a child you didn't question your infinite capacity to create what you wanted. But, life has a way of dimming our confidence with lies.

Lies that we are weak

...that the world is in charge

...that we only deserve the little we have.

Lies, that only seem real because we've heard them for so long.

You are a miracle of life! Your mind and will are stronger than any force on earth. You have the divine gift of creation. With only the power of your mind, you can change your entire experience of life – instantly!

No, this is not about endlessly repeating mindless affirmations!

It's about remembering Truth. It's about freeing yourself and being who you really are – strong, whole, and joyful.

Learning to master your wayward thoughts will put you back in control of your life...even if the economy doesn't cooperate. You are not victimized by the economy as much as you are persecuted by your uncontrolled mind.

In this workshop you will remember, once again, the mental strength you had as a child. You will learn how your mind drifts and takes your life with it. You will dive into the hidden power of two vastly underrated skills:

Gratitude and Forgiveness

These are not polite responses to the kindness or cruelty of others. These are highly-charged skills in mastering your mind's creative energy. The same energy that creates nightmares can create paradise. It's just a matter of focus.

“The workshop was incredible! I have pages of useful notes, future ponderings, and a sense of peace. My eyes were opened to some of the ways I daily contribute to my mind NOT being at ease, and the easy tools to transform my mind. Karen allowed us all to co-create with her as we explored questions and ideas. We all left with a lighter step and deeply thankful that we made the decision to attend.” Claudia Streichan

Aren't you ready to stop this madness?

To look up and see blue sky again?

To breathe and remember the joy of being alive?

For you, the insanity of this chaotic world can stop on June 12th.

I promise you this, you will leave this experience with a renewed confidence and peace that you haven't felt in a very long time...or I will joyfully refund every cent of your investment.

It's time to remember the truth of who you really are.
